 ・どちらかを選んで取り付ける	Your choice to choose which part you want to install. Basically this tells you that there is the choice to build this another way. One common example of this in Gundam kits are with the beam sabers, where you are given the choice to build it with either the beam saber on or just the hilt. Another common example in Gundam model kits is that some kits can be assembled as the cannon-fodder variant or the commander type, depending on the parts you have chosen when you see this symbol.
